VETERANS MEDAL AND DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL APPLICATION

Approved applicants for these medals will receive a full-size medal, a ribbon matching the medal, a miniature lapel pin, and a certificate. Both medals share the same cast, with the Vermont Veterans Medal bronze and the Vermont Distinguished Service Medal Silver.

ELIGIBILITY

Vermont Veterans Medal

1. Must have been a Vermont resident when entered military; or be a current Vermont resident; or be a member of a reserve or guard unit stationed in Vermont.
2. Received an honorable discharge, unless died prior to separation.
3. If national guard/reserve service only, must have been brought on active duty during a period of conflict.

Vermont Distinguished Service Medal

1. Must have been a Vermont resident when entered military; or be a current Vermont resident; or be a member of a reserve or guard unit stationed in Vermont.
2. Received an honorable discharge, unless died prior to separation.
3. Must have served in a combat theater, as evidenced by receipt of combat related decorations.

The Office of Veterans Affairs will review the veteran's record to determine eligibility for one or both medals.
